

BELL BLOCK SCHOOL NEWSLETTER #26
Friday 8 September 2023

Focus Value:
Responsibility -
Takohanga

School Goal:
Taking responsibility for your own actions both in the classroom and in the playground

Week 8 saw students taking on lots of learning and hands on activities in Te Ao Māori. These incorporated learning in class across the students' teams and in their school whānau across a range of activities. It has been amazing to see the students' learning and all the things they have made. They have been very excited and there has been a real buzz around the school. Thank you to Mr Kade Forsyth and the staff for their work in preparing and planning for these days and also to Kelsi Tamaiparea and Dave Trinder for their help and guidance.

Life Education has been in full swing with students working with Harold the Giraffe and the Life Education teacher in the mobile classroom. These sessions are always full of useful and interesting information and the students look forward to them with great anticipation.

The Celebration Assembly concluded our week and showcased the work of some of our students from the Kererū whānau. We also acknowledged another group of fantastic students for their hard work and for living the school values over the past two weeks.

Well done to all the students who received awards at the Assembly.

Unfortunately, next week will be the final week for Miss Caitlin Amos as the Room 8 teacher. She is pursuing a career outside teaching. Caitlin has been teaching here at Bell Block School for three years and we wish her all the best for this new challenge. Fortunately, we have been lucky enough to secure the return of Mrs Sian Evans and Mrs Aleisha Parkinson, both highly experienced teachers who will be sharing this role until the end of the year.

With two weeks left there are still lots of engaging activities and classroom learning to go this term. The Middle Team trip to Pioneer Village, Celebration Days and Pizza Day all lead up to the final Celebration Assembly of the term. This is the time our students should be showing all the learning that has occurred this year and produce their best quality work of the term.

Subway Lunch Orders

We are pleased to now be able to offer lunch orders from Subway once a week on a Thursday. You can place your order and pay online via the website www.lunchonline.co.nz. Meet the Leaders

Kia ora, my name is Gemma Maltby and I am honoured to be the Head Girl for the second half of 2023. Outside of school I love to do jazz, hip hop and contemporary dancing, roller skating, swimming and netball. I love taking my dog for walks on the beach. I am friendly and approachable so you can always come up to me with any questions or even just to introduce yourself! I am very excited to be Head Girl because I know I will get many opportunities and challenges and will be able to improve in my leadership skills. I can't wait for what exciting challenges these terms will bring!

Hi! I'm Leo Padruitt, and I am the Head Boy for the second half of this year. Here's a bit about me: I love climbing, mountain biking, skiing, hockey, and surf lifesaving. Besides being sporty, I am also very creative and love building things. If you see me in the playground or outside of school, don't be shy – come and say "Hi!" I'm easy to talk to and will always lend a helping hand.

PTA Meeting

We invite all parents/caregivers to our next PTA Meeting on Tuesday 12 September at 7pm in the school staffroom. At our meetings we discuss all fundraising opportunities and ideas that help support our school. You can also follow the Bell Block School PTA on Facebook for all upcoming events and information.
